

10 THINGS EVERY DYSLEXIC EMPLOYEE WANTS YOU TO KNOW

I am not lazy or stupid, I just need time to get certain tasks done.

1

2

Put me in the right place in your business and you will be amazed at what I can achieve.

My dyslexia is not only about reading and writing it affects many other areas.

3

4

Dyslexia is just one part of me. It does not define who I am or my worth.

I prefer to work in a quiet space as lots of noise can distract me.

5

6

When you break tasks down into smaller steps, I find it easier to complete.

My brain is visual so a 300 page manual is not the best way for me to learn.

7

8

Dyslexia is a hidden disability, just because I look the same as you, doesn't mean I think the same as you do.

I learn by doing and watching, not reading or listening.

9

10

Being dyslexic means I have amazing strengths in areas that you may not immediately see (people skills, creativity, empathy, big picture thinking).

Quiz

Take The Adult Dyslexia Quiz

Experience the truth about adult dyslexia. It only takes less 3 minutes to take the quiz

Take The Quiz Now